Orinda School Schedules Bond Election in July

Orinda Board Votes School Bond Election

The Board of Trustees of the Orinda school district passed a resolution June 5 to hold a bond election the week of July 18. The Union school district will need $400,000 in the next four or five years for new schools and additions to the present ones, according to members of the board.

Orinda School Superintendent J. L. Sheaff said the Orinda and Glorietta schools will be filled to capacity by 1951. "At the present time," said Sheaff, "we are building six new classrooms at Glorietta and three at Orinda, but the growing population in this district will necessitate the construction of two more schools within the next five years."

The superintendent pointed out that there has been an increase of approximately 20 per cent each year in school population and contended that without additional planning for a number of years in advance, to expedite buying of sites and building schools, the children would literally be "sitting on each other's laps."

With the bond election due for the week of July 18, the superintendent urged that the public be notified as to the importance of the bond approval before this date. "Acceptance of the bond before the public hearing Aug. 1, will reduce the local tax assessments which will have an effect on each taxpayer in the district, large or small," he said.

Pointing out the importance of spreading the amount of the bond issue over a period of four to five years, he stated that the new residents in the rapidly growing area would share equally in subsequent years for the payment of new buildings and additions. "The alternative consequence," he said, "would be higher individual tax assessment in the next two years for badly needed school facilities."

Orinda Students Graduate Tonight

Tonight is the finale for the 56 children graduating from the Glorietta and Orinda Union Grammar Schools. Commencement exercises will be held at 8 p.m. at the Orinda Union Grammar School.

The program for the evening will commence with the salute to the flag given by Tom Klement. This will be followed by the invocation, Rev. Fred Morrow of the Orinda Community Church; selections by the graduating class; piano selections by Tania Hudd; presentation of class gifts, Dick Doty for Glorietta School and Pete Hegerle for Orinda Union School and acceptance of gifts by Bill Ellermeier and John Connelly for the schools respectively.

A vocal solo will be given by Patricia Smith, scholarship awards given by Carl Miller; a piano selection by John Spiegl, remarks by Wayne F. McIntyre, director of field service for the county office of education; the class song, presentation of diplomas by William Fleager, president of the Board of Trustees and the national anthem.

Two boys and two girls, one each from Glorietta and Orinda Union School, will be awarded special scholarship honors by the sponsoring Orinda Lions Club at the graduation ceremonies to be held this evening.

Certificates will be presented to the as yet unidentified youngsters signifying their high standard of scholarship, sportsmanship, leadership, reliability and cooperation. Names of each of the students will be added to the perpetual trophy plaque which is displayed in the Orinda School. This is the fourth year the recognition has been granted through action of the local service club.

Following the ceremony the entire graduating class is to attend a party at the home of the E. J. Fowlers.

Ground Broken For Orinda PO; Tenancy in Nov.

Ground has been broken for the new Orinda Post Office and according to present plans the new building will be ready for tenancy about November 1, Mrs. Laura Mallary announced today.

The building is being constructed by Don Rheem and is to house three business establishments. It is located behind the American Trust Building.

The awarding of the contract to Rheem recently was the matter of some speculation when rumor had it that the contract had been let prior to announcement by the Post Office Department.

L.I.D. 13 Hearings Are Carried Over

Hearings on proposed work to be done in Local Improvement District No. 13, Orinda Estates area, was continued from last Thursday's meeting of the directing board of Central Contra Costa Sanitary District to June 22 in order to negotiate for easements on a portion of the route.

Following protests on assessments levied in L.I.D. No. 14, south of Orinda Crossroads, registered by more than a dozen residents of the area involved, District Engineer John Mason was authorized to revise assessments at the session held Tuesday night and the hearing was continued to June 22.

At last week's session, resolutions were adopted to establish L.I.D. No. 19, area west of Concord Monument. Protest hearing on proposed levying of assessments in Walnut Creek L.I.D. No. 8 was continued until the June 22 meeting, with 100 appeals received out of the 1100 property owners in that district.

SWIMMING PARTY

Mrs. Ed Turk's Girl Scout Troop 39 had a wonderful time last Saturday with a lunch and swimming party at the Joseph Long home in Sleepy Hollow that lasted from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. The girls also made it the occasion for a handkerchief shower to their leader.

Acalanes Board Votes to Buy Transit Buses for New Transportation System

Beginning next September, Acalanes High School, in conjunction with the Lafayette and Orinda Elementary School Districts, will institute their own student transportation system in lieu of the former method of contracting the service from Blackwood Transportation Co.

According to Neil Parsons, spokesman for the board of trustees, the board has decided after "due consideration," to purchase 12 transit type buses at a cost of approximately $136,000.

The decision was made last Saturday at a special meeting. Contracts for the transits were awarded to Gillig Company of Hayward and White Coach Manufacturing Co.

The buses were not purchased altogether on the basis of low bids, Parsons pointed out, but rather on the merits of safety, economy and convenience. He further stated that the board, together or individually had contacted other school districts in California now using the same system before awarding the contracts.

Question: Transit Vs. Conventional

Transit buses vs. conventional buses!

This has been the controversy behind the scenes of the Acalanes School district's purchase of new school buses, which was finally announced this week. Transit buses will be used. (See story inside.)

Transit buses are like the Greyhounds you see on the highway... engine in the rear and the driver sitting at the very front. You know what conventional buses are.

When the Acalanes board of trustees called for bids for transit buses, questions were immediately raised as to the advisability of such a move.

The primary question boiled down to this: Are transit buses SAFE on our winding, mountain roads?

Critics of transit buses agree they are good along level highway, but insist that in hilly roads, particularly in Orinda, transits are difficult to handle and are unsafe.

They also contend that transits are more expensive initially and are at least 25 per cent more costly to maintain.

To learn more about this the SUN talked at length with school trustees and school superintendent, Neil Parsons. See adjoining story.

VISIT ELSEWHERE

"The board took trips to Tamalpais, Petaluma, Marysville, Chico, Salinas and Hayward schools," he said "to determine the merits of individual buses and the safety and over-all economy of each."

Not only did the board find that these schools were using the Gillig and White buses, he said, but more schools are using these two makes of buses in Northern California than all of the other makes combined.

RIDE IN ORINDA

"But the board was not satisfied with facts alone from other schools," Parsons said. "Last month the members were taken for a ride through the Orinda hills, the Lafayette district and the Acalanes area, by several bus manufacturers before making a decision. They decided after these demonstrations that the heavy type buses with the seat directly over the motor would be better for driving vision and would hold up longer over a period of years."

The buses purchased included eight, 61 passenger Gillig buses; two, 73 passenger Gillig buses and two, 75 passenger White coaches.

The board has employed a "bus superintendent," who will hire bus drivers, route buses and repair the units.

Mrs. de Laveaga To Address 38th Club Convention

Mrs. Edward de Laveaga of Orinda, Calif., president of Kappa Province of Kappa Kappa Gamma, women's college fraternity, with 82 chapters in colleges and universities of the United States and Canada and alumnae associations in both countries, will take an important part in the thirty-eighth biennial convention, when it opens June 24 and continues through July 1, at the Manoir Richelieu, Murray Bay, Canada. More than 600 delegates and officers will attend the convention.

Kappa Province includes chapters of Kappa Kappa Gamma at the following colleges: University of California, Berkeley, California; University of Arizona, Tucson, Arizona; University of California at Los Angeles, Los Angeles, California; University of Southern California, Los Angeles, California; San Jose State College, San Jose, California.

Alumnae groups in the geographical area also come under Mrs. de Laveaga's jurisdiction.

Ballet Students To Stage Recital

Friday night, June 23, at 8:15 p.m. Lila Murphy will present her dance recital at Acalanes High School. This is the fourth annual recital to be staged by the children of Walnut Creek, Lafayette and Orinda who are studying ballet at the Orinda Dance Studio.

One hundred and twenty children will participate in the ballet, tap and interpretative numbers besides enacting the dance and pantomime the Nutcracker Suite and the complete Coppelia Ballet.

This entire program will take only one hour and a half. It is quickly paced, well done and a compliment to the children's ability and interest in their dance training.

Last Rites Held For W. Livingston

Funeral services for Wallace W. Livingston who died in Orinda Thursday, were held in the chapel of the Albert Brown Mortuary in Oakland Monday afternoon.

A native of California, Mr. Livingston is survived by his widow, Nellie Livingston; two sons, Donald K. and Willard W. Livingston; three grandchildren, and two sisters, Mrs. Enid Ervin and Mrs. Grace Goddard.

School District Files Suit for New School Site

Plans for a high school in Orinda moved a step nearer realization recently with the filing of condemnation proceedings against 30 acres of East Bay Municipal Utility District property on the north corner of Orinda Crossroads by the Acalanes High School District.

Deputy District Attorney Charles L. Hemming filed the suit for the school district.

The school and the utility district have been unable to agree on an acceptable price for the land; hence the suit.

Officials, too, are in favor of the new school because with the present increase rate of population in the area facilities at Acalanes will soon be inadequate to cope with the situation.

We Say Hats Off To Bob Clough

The SUN this week doffs its hat to Bob Clough and the Orinda Association.

Bob presented the idea for a "Meet the Candidates" town hall to the Civic Affairs Committee of the Orinda Association. As chairman of this active group, he then carried the idea to the board of directors of the Orinda Association. And most of the work in planning and setting up the political meeting was done by Bob Clough.

Well, you know the rest. The meeting, attended by almost all of our county candidates, was a huge success. It was informative... it was entertaining... it filled a community need.

So our hat is off to Bob—and, in addition, to Bob Spott and Marvin Bonds, who assisted; and to Ken Morrish who did a superb job as master of ceremonies.

FROM THE SIDELINES

By Coach Ervin Mattson

TODAY MARKS the end of the 1949-50 school year and already thoughts turn to the 1950-51 season.

A football sign up was held in order to get a line on the number of candidates who will be on hand when the practice season opens on September 1. Practice is starting a week later due to the changing of the schedule. Ordinarily the opening game is played on the first Friday of school but this year it will be on the second weekend.

In another year the season has been set back another week so that the opening practice coincides with the first school day. That means that the final game approaches Thanksgiving time. Many have expressed doubts regarding success of the new plan due to probable weather difficulties. September and October usually present a good share of warm nights. November becomes another problem however with rain and cold often upsetting the best laid plans as far as outside activities are concerned.

ON THE BASIS of early returns it appears that approximately 100 candidates will answer the opening call, which means that a hundred complete practice suits must be ready to go. All of last year's gear has been cleaned, sterilized and repaired. It was returned early last week and is now being numbered preparatory to issuance come September 1.

PLANS THIS YEAR call for double practice sessions during the first week. Linesmen will meet in the mornings from 10 to 11:30 while backs will convene from 1:30 to 3:00. All members will meet in night session from 7 to 9.

Such a plan will enable the coaches to give much more individual attention to the various squad members with fundamentals being stressed in the day session and team play developed under the lights.

ONE NEW PIECE of apparatus being used is a blocking bag which can readily be handled by one player and is especially flexible and maneuverable due to the fact that it has a canvas cover with a rubber tube which blows up.

Bags in the past have been a problem largely due to their bulky character and resulting fatigue with brief handling. The new bag is very light and yet affords maximum protection. The bag should be of great value in teaching blocking fundamentals and play assignments.

BASEBALL INTEREST is high. The interest in hardball is becoming more and more evident with a good number of sandlot games going on. Many young groups have been observed playing hardball which is a new development.

One of the problems of high school ball has been the teaching of freshmen to handle and not to be afraid of the hard ball. The very word "hard" probably has a detrimental effect on the newcomer to the game. Actually a new softball is every bit as hard as the so called hardball.

The hardball is smaller however and consequently travels faster. Young and inexperienced players often shy away from the ball both at bat and afield.

FIELDERS OFTEN SHY on ground balls due to the fact that many sandlot fields present a rather rough surface and consequently the ball when rolling on the ground takes bad hops.

The important thing is to keep the eye on the ball and this can best be developed by hitting and throwing slow rollers and gradually speeding up as the player gains confidence.

Success breeds confidence in any game and is a most important factor in any teaching procedure.

A good player always believes in himself and feels that he can do well. Champions as a rule have a good opinion of their abilities. The nice thing about it is that they can back up their opinions with their performances.

IT APPEARS THAT Contra Costa Junior College may receive several Acalanes athletes. Orlando Chiavini appears to be headed for the Richmond campus and may be followed by Lawrence Lucas. These two were last fall's first string tackles with Lucas in the all county category. Both should have a good chance for top berths on the J.C. eleven which will be coached by Jack Danilovich of Antioch fame, and Hugo Boschetti, former Alhambra mentor.

THE EAST CAMPUS, located at Martinez, does not have any plans for competitive football so that pigskin aspirants will have to enroll at the Richmond campus.

Fishermen Land 147,000 During April

The 48,000 ocean going sport fishermen who tried their luck off the California coast in April caught a total of more than 147,000 fish, according to reports compiled by the Division of Fish and Game.

From the operators of 248 party fishing boats, State researchers learned that kelp and sand bass provided the largest total catch during the 30-day period. Nearly half of the two-species haul was made in the San Pedro, Wilmington, Long Beach and Seal Beach areas.

Rockfish totals made second place on the April catch list with 41,590 landed. Party boats from the Monterey Bay area reported a catch of 12,070 rockfish.

Biologists of the Bureau of Marine Fisheries asked ocean anglers to be on the lookout for some of the 1,200 kelp and sand bass which have been tagged this year in

Census Shows Contra Costa Almost Three Times As Large As In 1940

Census figures revealed recently for Contra Costa County shows the population today is almost three times that of 10 years ago.

The 1950 census figures listed the population here as 100,450. Today it is 297,344, a jump of 186,894.

B. L. Brannon, district census supervisor, announced that figures for individual unincorporated areas would be made public by the main office of the census bureau at a later date.

Census taking in the suburban areas of the county this year was a hit-and-miss affair to begin with. The census takers missed many of the newer settled areas because of not knowing where they were.

However a thorough check of the areas was made following a great number of telephone complaints made to the district office.

Attitude Scale Used in County High Schools

The scale of attitudes and beliefs originated by Dr. Leslie Nelson is now being used in counseling in a majority of Contra Costa County high schools. The reaction to the scale seems to be uniformly enthusiastic; its value lies in the fact that it converts the intangibles of personality into something tangible, thereby greatly simplifying the work of the counselor. The profile arrived at by using the scale can also be helpful to the individual student in understanding himself.

The scale is applied to the manner in which the individual reacts to 144 statements, keyed to eight areas, such as attitude toward self, family and home, economic life, etc. Attitudes and beliefs of 1000 students in the county were used to calculate, by machine and statistically, the normal range. The counselor's job is to interpret to the student any variations.

DAR Meets Last Time 'Til Fall

Monday, June 5, the regular meeting of the Acalanes Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest F. Ford on Boyer Circle, Lafayette.

After the business program was dispensed with an inspiring tribute to our flag was read by Mrs. Katherine Obeare Dewey.

It was interesting to learn that the story that Betsy Ross made the first flag, though it is disputed by some historians is on record. The first flag flown in defense in the face of an armed enemy was at Fort Stanwix on August 3, 1777, and was made of a soldier's white shirt, a captain's blue coat and the red flannel petticoat of a woman in the garrison.

A desire was expressed by all members present that on Flag Day this month all patriotic Americans in Lafayette who own an American flag will display it.

No more meetings will be held by the Acalanes Chapter until fall. On October 2 a program tea will be held at the home of Mrs. Harvey Lyon, Woodland Lodge, Lafayette, to which the public will be invited.

The following new members were welcomed into the chapter: Mrs. Ernest J. Hadden, Orinda; Mrs. Jack Schweitzer, Berkeley; Mrs. W. Dudley Nebeker, Orinda; Mrs. Robert G. Windeler, Concord, and Mrs. Leroy Kennedy, Lafayette.

Mrs. Wayne Newhall of Berkeley was a guest.

Don Golf Team Wins 5 out of 9

Acalanes golfers closed their season recently with five victories to their credit against four defeats.

Most spectacular event of the season was the win over Berkeley according to Coach Dilling. The school's first golf team made a good showing for its initial appearance.

Consistently giving good performances during the past year have been Lyn Bierce, Mike Elvidge, Dave Cranston and Bob Diehl. Other members are Jack Stoffel, Jim Macomber, Don Reid, Walt Williams, Dick Platt, John Barnett, Bob Andrew, Charles Leach and Bob Crall.

Losing only two seniors, Lyn Bierce and Jim Macomber, next year's team will enter the ACAL league, which takes in golfers from this area. Mr. Dilling will be coaching.

Largest Acalanes Class to Graduate 196 This Sunday

Seniors of the largest graduating class at Acalanes High School will don caps and gowns Sunday for the final ceremony of the school year. Graduation services will be conducted at Acalanes Memorial Field beginning at 2:30 p.m.

The school band will initiate the program with the traditional "Pomp and Circumstance" processional following which Rev. David Graham of St. Paul's Episcopal Church of Walnut Creek will deliver the invocation.

Edward P. Larmer, senior class president will then deliver the welcoming address. Student speakers Clark McBride and Barbara Sondag will speak using the themes "Thanks for the Past" and "Hope for the Future."

Presentation of the class will be made by district superintendent Neil M. Parsons and diplomas will be bestowed by Dr. Ralph Hall, president of the Acalanes Board of Trustees.

Rev. Joseph E. McLaughlin of St. Mary's Church, Walnut Creek, will deliver the benediction.

Special music for the program will be rendered by flutist Thomas Hageman and pianist Theodore Lassagne. The school band directed by Oscar Busch will also play.

School officials announced that plans had been made for the seating of better than 2,000 persons. Admission will be by invitation.

Baccalaureate Service at High School Sunday

Tenth Annual Baccalaureate services of the Acalanes High School were conducted Sunday at 6 p.m.

Following the processional by Harold Hawley, Rev. Phillip A. Solbjor of the Walnut Creek Methodist Church gave the invocation. The Acalanes mixed chorus then rendered the selection "Jesus, Joy of Man's Desiring" under the direction of Oscar J. Busch.

Rev. Harry E. Shaner of the Lafayette Community Methodist Church gave the Baccalaureate address which was followed by another selection by the chorus and a hymn.

Rev. Albert D. Lestor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Walnut Creek, gave the benediction.

County 4-H'ers Approve Class

Tractors proved to be a popular subject with 4-H Club members. Over 1200 boys and girls in 40 counties are actively engaged in the tractor maintenance program in California.

The reaction to the new 4-H Club activity was instantaneous in Contra Costa County, according to Farm Advisor Joe Borden. This is the first year that tractor care has been offered as a club project and the rural boys and girls flocked to it. Borden says the initial interest has been maintained, and he expects a high record of completions.

Local leaders in charge of tractor maintenance classes in Contra Costa County include Fred Gelboe of Concord, George Wood of Danville and Manuel Lima of Knightsen. Forty boys and girls are attending these classes.

Why No Activity During the Summer?

(AN EDITORIAL)

Every year about this time we expect to see long lines of autos filled with our townspeople — all heading for vacation spots. We further expect within a few weeks to drive through the community and find it deserted.

This we expect — but for some strange reason it doesn't happen.

Why then do we expect this mass emigration and desertion from our happy homes?

Well, it's simply this. Every year with the arrival of summer one local organization after another holds its "last meeting of the year" and ceases activities until fall. For a couple of weeks we read that almost every club, organization or group has closed up shop for the summer. (There are, of course, a few exceptions, such as Chamber of Commerce, and service clubs).

We have never quite adjusted ourself to this custom, tradition or whatever it may be.

Community problems do not disappear just because the calendar says "June, July or August."

There is certainly as much work to be done to better our town now as there was a month ago.

The necessity for contacting and cooperating with our various governmental agencies is as great during the warm season as in the cooler months.

And further the need for entertainment is still with us today — even if it is June. (This is interesting because so many of the social groups — bridge, folk dancing, dancing groups, etc. — also fold up their tents now. Of course, some new ones swing into action during summer).

Let's look at this realistically.

We know that clubs and organizations are not machines, but are people. And people like to relax in the summer. We can garden later . . . play golf later . . . picnic and swim at our swimming clubs . . . take off for camping and fishing week ends . . . play with the children later each night.

And, of course, there are vacations. (But this is not too valid an excuse for closing down activities. At any one time there is only a very small percentage of our total population vacationing.)

We believe it boils down to the fact that summer is a time to let down.

It becomes an excuse.

Now THE SUN isn't going to go on a great campaign to revitalize organizations into summer activities. (The staff, too, likes to relax a bit — and if you think you attend a lot of meetings, just work for a newspaper for awhile.)

But we can't resist expressing our surprise at how suddenly our bustling and much organized community sits back in an easy chair — every year at this time.

Many Entries for Oakland Horse Show on June 24

Many local residents plan to enter the horse show at Oakland June 24 and 25.

Over $2,000 worth of trophies will be awarded as prizes at the Sequoia Arena in Joaquin Miller Park, according to Clarence A. Simons, chairman of trophies and ribbons.

Many types of horses will compete in the 20 events scheduled, including the high-stepping five-gaited and three-gaited saddlebreds. Only adult contestants and their horses will perform in the Sunday show, while the Saturday program will be limited to junior contestants under 17 years of age.

Spectacular mounted drill exhibitions and trick riding will also be featured on both programs. The Metropolitan Junior Horsemen's drill team will perform on Saturday, and the Shongehon Riders from Cressmount will go through their precision drill on Sunday.

Plans are also being made for a big horse parade in downtown Oakland on Thursday evening, June 22. Invitations to all mounted parade and drill units in the Bay area are being mailed from horse show headquarters in The Hut, City Hall Plaza, 1401 San Pablo Avenue, Oakland, according to Don Marquis, parade chairman.

School Swimmers Win 17 of Season's 20 Meets

The Acalanes swimming team closed the season with a three-meet siege last week. It turned out to be a very good season for the pool-men with the A's taking 8 of 10 meets and the B's 9 of 10.

Local Reservists Hear Of Navy Sanitation

"The Navy's Training Program on Sanitation Problems" was subject of a talk given by Mr. Walter S. Mangold at the June 6 meeting of the Naval Reserve Volunteer Composite Unit No. 12-25 of the Orinda-Walnut Creek area at the Acalanes High School Walnut Creek.

County Residents To Study Area X-ray Program

Monday at 2 p.m. community leaders from Contra Costa County met with the United States Public Health Service in an attempt to determine if a rapid tempo chest X-ray survey of every person over 15 years of age in Contra Costa County can be undertaken.

The United States Public Health Service has helped conduct such surveys in fourteen other areas in the United States and they will give our local leaders information concerning the values of the survey, the local cost, the things needed and the local organization necessary to make it successful.

Freak Accident Claims Victim

A Concord man, James Cantro, 40, was injured in a freak accident here Saturday.

Cantro and his employer, Harry Ide, a Concord landscape architect were working at the home of Frank Brown off Springhill Road when Cantro took a lawnmower out of the truck.

As he lifted the implement the brakes on the vehicle failed and the truck rolled over him.

Despite possible fractured ribs and other injuries, Cantro crawled 75 yards to the house for aid. He was taken to the Concord Hospital.

Captain Sandford Sez:

THOSE WHO SOUGHT the confidence of the voters in the Primary Elections just over, are certainly a very handsome group of individuals. However, handsome is as handsome does and I believe that it would be a very good plan if the friends of these gentlemen would display as much enthusiasm in removing their pictures from the telegraph poles and such places now that the election is over, as they did in sticking them up.

As such pictures begin to disintegrate they look about as drab, dismal and unattractive as the old ships in Suisun Bay.

THERE ARE FAR TOO MANY war rumors around these days and far too many war-mongers in this good old world of ours. What we really need is not war, but Peace and international understanding, to accomplish which intelligent, honest, sincere and courageous international statesmen are absolutely necessary. How many such great national statesmen have we got in this man's land to help keep the peace?

IT SEEMS THAT NOT very many automobile drivers know that a horse ridden or led has superior rights to an automobile on our highways under the law.

MANY OF US LOOK WITH HORROR and annoyance upon the reckless and careless driving of most of our modern motorists, I know I sure do. Now how about many of our little guys who scoot about on bicycles weaving and waving through the heavy automobile traffic, or suddenly dashing out on to the highways in such fashion that only the most expert drivers with lightning-like reactions can avoid running them over.

I often encounter two small boys who use the County road for a baseball diamond. The pitcher, grumbling to himself, reluctantly yields the center of the road to each passing automobile and then carefully returns to the center of the road to pitch again. I think that one of these kids is more than likely to be killed or maimed.

Regarding my appeal for a good name for the newly formed group of horseback riders, I have had only one suggestion. I most sincerely hope that they may find a good, colorful name for this splendid, enthusiastic group of youngsters.

Important Traffic Meet Is Planned

It was announced today by Winnie I. Howell, executive secretary of the Senate Interim Committee on Traffic and Motor Vehicle Violations that invitations have gone out to important people in the enforcement and judicial side of the administration of the Motor Vehicle Code in the counties of San Francisco, Oakland, San Mateo, Santa Clara, Contra Costa and Marin to appear before the Senate Interim Committee on Traffic and Motor Vehicle Violations at hearings to be held in San Francisco, Room 540, State Building, June 16, and morning of June 17, 1950.

She stated that rapidly developing information having to do with traffic and motor vehicle violations and prosecution of cases growing out of arrests under the Motor Vehicle Code in California will make the meeting of the Senate Interim Committee on this subject at San Francisco on Friday and Saturday, June 16 and 17, extremely important.

The committee expects to file with the regular session of the state legislature in January of 1951 the most important and inclusive report on this subject that has ever yet been worked out.

Vet 'Buy Your Home' Coming Thing in State

For every veteran of World War I or II who has taken advantage of the low-cost financing features of the State Farm and Home Purchase Program there are four more who have made plans to do so in the future, State Director of Veterans Affairs D. J. Callaghan, Jr., reported today.

Since the program was established in 1921, Callaghan said, more than 54,000 veterans of World War I and about 163,000 from World War II have filed their preliminary applications to establish eligibility for the program. Of this total of about 217,000, only slightly more than 40,000 have actually entered into purchase contracts.

Year's Activities Near End for Cubs at Orinda

Dens of Orinda Cub Pack 32 are finishing up their individual group activities and looking forward to final festivities of their year at the Diablo Area Cub Packs' Jamboree to be held at Acalanes High School on June 24.

All members of the pack who have qualified for awards are urged to get their requirements to Mrs. Charles Coburn of Hacienda Circle by next Monday at the latest in order to get their final honors at the jamboree session.

In a final resume of pack activities for this past season, special mention was made of Athletic Director Joe Navone who has been aided by Heywood Gathings, Harry Noller and Don March in promoting a high degree of sportsmanship among the boys. This season's baseball team, with all new members played 8 league games, winning four and losing four, and keeping up a fine spirit of team cooperation. Appreciation was also expressed of the assistance other dads have given with the Cubbing program.

Reported among recent den outings was the barbecue and theater party for Den 1 sponsored by Den Mother Mrs. James Brown last Sunday. Members of the den who attended the weenie roast at Mrs. Brown's home and then went to the show at Orinda Theater were Michael Gillivan, Henry Moylan, Johnny Coates, Garry Bottjer, Garry Beeman, Steve Rasmussen and David Brown.

Den Cubs, led by Den Mother Mrs. Roger Dexter, visited the home of Gus Nordquist, taxidermist, to see his collection of stuffed birds. Mrs. Fred King will be Den Mother of this group of boys next year, it has been announced.

Den 10 held its final meeting last week at the home of Den Mother Mrs. David Wallace where the boys completed painting and glazing statues.

Regular den activities will resume with opening of the fall school term, but plans are underway for a summer baseball program in charge of Navone. Dates and times of the proposed games will be announced later.

Announce Drop in Insurance Costs

Joseph J. Gallagher, manager of the State Compensation Insurance Fund, has announced that the County of Contra Costa and its employees established a very good safety record during the year ending July 1, 1949. As a result, the County of Contra Costa has reduced its workmen's compensation insurance cost by 49 per cent of the premium. This saving was in the form of a cash dividend amounting to $14,143.32.

The attention which was given to accident prevention activities and the cooperation of county officials have enabled the State Compensation Insurance fund to effect this saving for the County of Contra Costa.

Disabled County Vets Must Apply for Home

Although the Veterans Home of California, located in Napa County, is growing steadily in capacity through a long-range postwar building program, disabled veterans in Contra Costa County are reminded by J. W. Hammond, County Veterans Service Officer, that it is still necessary to make advance arrangements for admission.

The waiting list at the Veterans Home is currently averaging between 150 and 200 veterans, most of them seeking domiciliary care.

Hammond warned veterans that it is of no use whatever to travel to the Veterans Home and "camp on the doorstep." Except for emergency hospitalization cases, admissions are controlled by the waiting list.

Those who are interested may obtain application forms and detailed information from the Veterans Service Offices at Room 108, Hall of Records, Martinez, and 2721 MacDonald Avenue, Richmond.

Your Garden

Gare of Garden Ornamentals Requires Preparation: Study Proves Worthwhile

By BERT WRIGHT

June is the month, when, generally speaking, you can split the time you spend in your garden between enjoying it and maintaining it. And, if you have just a little ambition, there are plenty of planting jobs to do. In addition, this is the time of year when dozens of our most highly prized garden ornamentals are in the height of their bloom. We might spend some time in learning how to care for the flowers, both on and off the plant.

CUT FLOWERS: The best time to remove flowers from the parent plant is during the early morning hours. At this time the plant cells are swollen with moisture stored up during the previous evening and night. Also, evaporation is at a low point. These two factors are responsible for minimizing the shock usually suffered when a bloom is cut from the plant. Immediately after cutting the flowers, they should be placed in a deep container. Put sufficient cold water in this container so its level is just slightly below the blooms. Then allow the flowers to rest for several hours before arranging them. This resting period makes it possible for the flowers to absorb as much water as possible, thus adding to their longevity.

MULCH: The warmer the weather gets, and the faster the rate of evaporation, the more valuable a mulch becomes. A mulch is a substance such as peat, leaf mold or straw that is spread on the surface to protect the roots. Azaleas and camellias especially should be mulched as their roots must not be allowed to dry out during hot weather.

IRIS: Iris planted now will bloom next year. This is a good time to select planting stock as plants in bloom are growing everywhere. You can select those varieties that have the greatest appeal. Iris are easy to grow and are one of the most attractive flowering subjects for late spring and summer bloom. Established clumps growing in your garden can be divided and replanted now if they have become crowded. The top of the rhizome should be even with the soil surface, the roots being spread out and covered with soil.

MUMS: Rooted chrysanthemum plants can now be transplanted to your garden. The chrysanthemum is the Queen of the autumn garden and no California gardener should be without at least a few plants, or rows if space allows. If you have the ambition... and like adventure... try one of the Cascade varieties. It's the way to increase your gardening pleasure.

VEGETABLES: The warm weather is encouraging to dozens of varieties of vegetables, for planting both from seed and transplants. Squash, tomatoes and beans are among the heaviest producers and a few plants will keep your family well supplied for longer than you think. Vegetables should be set out in the sun with the exception of varieties such as spinach and rhubarb which tolerate a fair amount of shade. Set tomato plants somewhat deeper than their former planting depth. Roots will develop higher up on the stem and will aid in producing a larger plant.

WATERING: Keep all your watering equipment in good repair. From here on out the success of your garden will depend on the effectiveness of your watering program. The new plastic hoses are light in weight and guaranteed for a period of many years. Let us show you the various sprinklers, garden hoses and other types of equipment that will save your plants during the summer season. Just when to water has always been a controversial subject. Our vote would be to water early in the morning. The only objection to evening watering is that certain plants... such as delphinium, roses and zinnias... are subject to mildew, a malady that is encouraged if the leaves are wet overnight.

PRUNING: Spring-flowering shrubs that have finished blooming at this time should be pruned now. It is not necessary to cut the daylight out of the plants but remember that the new wood being formed now will produce flowers next spring. Careful pruning will encourage their growth, thus resulting in a bigger crop of flowers for your garden next season.

PLANTING: Many shrubs in gallon and five gallon containers are now in bloom and can safely be transplanted to your garden. This is one sure way of introducing color into your garden in a hurry. Apply plenty of water to minimize, as much as possible, the shock that always accompanies moving ornamentals from one location to another.

In our neighborhoods, please drive carefully. How fast can you stop if a child runs into the street?

Scouts Ready For Jamboree At Valley Forge

The final training session for Scouts from the Alameda, Berkeley-Contra Costa, and Piedmont Councils attending the great National Jamboree, took place at Camp Herms, 1290 Arlington Avenue, El Cerrito, beginning Friday evening, and ending Sunday afternoon. This training was to prepare them for the extensive educational tour and for the seven day Jamboree session at Valley Forge near Philadelphia, where they will camp with 47,165 other Scouts from all over America.

The 70 boys and six adult leaders have been organized into two Troops; Troop 14 consists of Scouts from the Alameda, Piedmont, and Berkeley-Contra Costa Councils and will be directed by Scoutmaster William Cox from Alameda and Assistant Scoutmasters Joe Crodin from Piedmont and Elton Turner from Crockett. Troop 10 consists of Scouts from the Berkeley-Contra Costa Council only and will be directed by Scoutmaster Bob Breuer from Berkeley and Assistant Scoutmasters Bill Canning from Berkeley and Russell Bell from Richmond.

Training will simulate conditions expected at Valley Forge and will give each patrol within each troop an opportunity to develop its organization and learn to use the equipment and cook the kind of food provided for them at the Jamboree.

All personal and Patrol gear will be inspected and a demonstration and display period for parents and friends is planned from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Sunday afternoon.

PLAN THEMES

Scouts from each area have planned themes representative of their cities and each Troop will display a gateway to its camping area significant of California or its history. The Richmond, Oakland, and Pittsburg Chambers of Commerce have been active in helping the boys from their areas develop methods of representation.

Both troops will leave the Bay Area on a special train on the morning of June 20. The train will also carry contingents from other Councils in the Bay Area and will go directly to Yellowstone Park where the boys will spend two days before proceeding to Chicago, Washington D.C., and Valley Forge. After an extensive sightseeing tour they will return home July 16.

Each boy has been working and saving for months and has in many instances been selected as the top representative from his home unit and has received assistance from sponsoring institution and Troop in order to make this trip.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH
"Is the Universe, Including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" This question will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in Christian Science churches this Sunday, June 18, with the Golden Text taken from John: "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. . . All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made" (1:1, 3).

Included in the citations from the Bible and from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, will be the following:

Job: "Then the Lord answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said, Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart? . . . Then Job answered the Lord, and said, I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withholden from thee" (38:1, 36; 42:1, 2).

Science and Health: "The finite must yield to the infinite. Advancing to a higher plane of action, thought rises from the material sense to the spiritual, from the scholastic to the inspirational, and from the mortal to the immortal. All things are created spiritually. Mind, not matter, is the creator. Love, the divine Principle, is the Father and Mother of the universe, including man" (p. 256).

Special Service At Orinda Church

The Church Service at 10 o'clock and a special evening Forum Service at 8 o'clock will be devoted on June 25 to the cause of world peace at Orinda Community church, as its committee on Public Affairs and Social Issues brings to Orinda Professor Theodore Paullin of Connecticut State Teachers College, a representative of the American Friends Service Committee.

Causes of the concern of all citizens over the present state of international relations has been the subject of active research by the Society of Friends for many years. Dr. Paullin is a member of a special commission devoted to this problem, according to Kirk Miles, committee chairman.

More Than 200 Attend Recent Guild Meeting.

In the beautiful garden and patio of the Robert Breuner estate on June 6, the Women's Guild held its annual luncheon and program. The wind blew terrifically but all of the more than 200 women present were delighted with the tasty and generous luncheon, the musical program, and the never to be forgotten address of Roger Deas.

Following the luncheon, Mrs. John Dorr presided at the meeting with her usual grace and charm, welcoming guests, telling of the philanthropic work of the guild, and announcing plans for a 75 cent luncheon at the church October 3 which would also feature a "style" show of articles to be sold at the November bazaar. She then turned the meeting over to the program chairman, Mrs. Wirtabel Harris, who introduced Mrs. Helen Blake-ney and her accompanist, Mrs. Charles Baker. Mrs. Blake-ney sang most delightfully four selections from Roberta and told the story of the operetta between each number.

Mrs. Harris next introduced the famous speaker of the afternoon, J. Roger Deas, touching upon his activities as secretary to Gov. Warren, as a journalist, as a member of the faculty of Golden Gate College, and as a representative to the first meetings of the United Nations sessions in San Francisco. Tall, dynamic smiling Deas held his audience spellbound from his first to his last word. His theme was the three Gospels of Paul, the Gospel of Man, and he told how he tried to see these exemplified in the almost ethereal beauty of Mt. Shasta as he beheld it one time from a distance at sunset, then in a more intimate closer view of its ruggedness and usefulness to man with its water and trees, and then the inspiration he got while camping in its shadows from his "y" leader. Deas' address was not only inspirational but also so full of humor and graphic gestures that it was highly entertaining, in a uniquely Deas style.

C. of C. Votes To Ask for Traffic Officer at X-road

The Orinda Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors held their first regular meeting yesterday, Ramsey Underwood, publicity chairman, stated.

Considered for immediate action was a resolution to get an officer to operate the light at the Crossroads during the peak hours of traffic to lessen the congestion at these times. They also voted to join other organizations in the area in trying to get the rip-rap removed from this same intersection.

On a long range basis the board considered the acquisition of Christmas decorations of a substantial nature for the Crossroads and the Village. These would be of a nature which could be changed or added to in succeeding years.

NEW RESIDENTS

New Orinda residents are Mr. and Mrs. William Gillis and their small daughter Susan who moved here from Berkeley.

Orinda Girl To Sail on Racing Yacht as "Cooky"

Mrs. Pauline McGeorge, 20, Orinda, and her husband, Gene, 22, will be crew members on the forthcoming cruise of the yawl Contender when the vessel puts to sea.

The self-styled Kansas "farm boy," and physical education graduate of Kansas State College, 31-year-old Marshall "Smoky" Stover, realized the dream of a lifetime recently when he was able to purchase the vessel.

He has assembled a crew, mostly of college students, the average age 24, which so far consists of two husband-wife teams, six University of California students, two from California College of Arts and Sciences, an insurance man and a chemist.

Mrs. McGeorge is to sign aboard as "Cooky," a far cry from her studies in art at the University of California.

Crew members have received all kind of counsel with the exception of where to find an organization which "wants a yacht to go some place on a special mission."

The vessel itself is a one-time winner of the race to Honolulu — in 1939.

In search of new adventure and a desire to get close to nature, that lively group known as the Orinda Clippers trekked off to Tilden Park last Friday and amid warwhoops of joy swooped down on Indian Camp for an evening of fun and frolic.

Ken Beeman was "big chief" assisted by Chuck Flenner, Horace Breed and Ruth Hauter. The outdoor meal included roasted weenies and coffee from a can. There was lots to eat and lots of music. The Clippers always have a grand time. Not even the fog that drifted in late in the evening could dampen the crowd's outdoor spirit and enthusiasm.
